GREAT FORTUNE AWAITS HEIRS.

St. Louisans Also Are Interested in $75,000,000 Estate.

John H. Ketter of No. 1829 Bidle street and Mrs. Louise Stone of No. 370 Lincoln are among the heirs to an estate of $75,000,000 left by their uncle, William Blackburn, in England, who died without issue.

Mrs. Rachel Blackburn Ketter of Jacksonville, Ill., mother of John H. Ketter and Louise Stone, and Eliza Blackburn of Kansas City, are the only heirs who live near St. Louis.

Others live in England, Scotland and Eastern States. Altogether, Mr. Ketter says, there are about forty heirs, which will give the heirs a fortune of $75,000,000.

"Since childhood I have often been told by my mother that some day I would be a rich man," said Mr. Ketter. "She has referred to the wealth of our uncle, William Blackburn, but we have not known his place of residence for many years. We were informed through advertisements published in Eastern papers that the executors of our uncle's estate were endeavoring to locate the heirs. We have engaged legal counsel to represent us."

Until two weeks ago Mr. Ketter conducted a confectionery store at No. 2125 Franklin avenue. He has lived in St. Louis sixteen years, coming here from Jacksonville, Ill. The bright prospect for great riches, however, has not changed the modest fruit dealer.

"GOLD SEAL" CHAMPAGNE

"SPECIAL DRY." "BRUT."

America's Best.

"GOLD SEAL" is made by the French process from the choicest grapes grown in our own vineyards, excels any other American wine and equals any imported.

"GOLD SEAL" may be placed on the table of the most fastidious connoisseur without fear of criticism or comparison with any imported champagne.

"GOLD SEAL" has been analyzed and tested by the world's best doctors and most eminent chemists in competition with six of the best French Champagnes; the result of the analysis showed "GOLD SEAL" to be purer and more healthful than any French wine, with a more delicate bouquet and flavor. It costs less than one-half the price of imported wine.

Why pay twice as much for foreign labels?

"GOLD SEAL" is sold everywhere and served at all leading clubs, hotels and cafes. Ask for it at your club. Order a case for your home.

SARAH BERNHARDT says: I find the Urbana Wine Co.'s "GOLD SEAL" CHAMPAGNE excellent—in fact, superior to many French Champagnes. It surprises me that such a fine wine can be produced in America.
